HELPFUL - HUMBLE - HONEST - HEART DRIVEN

LEADING BY EXAMPLE:

Syracuse, NY: In the spirit of camaraderie and appreciation, a few managers at our Syracuse branch recently united for a special initiative. Their goal? To organize and host a delightful BBQ lunch for all employees.

While trying to beat the incoming storm, Craig Flowers, Brian Lynch and Jay Depalma fired up the grills and got cooking, ready to serve up a feast. From sizzling burgers to mouthwatering salads, the aroma of BBQ goodness wafted through the air, drawing everyone to the outdoor gathering. As employees arrived, they were greeted with smiles and hearty welcomes from their managers-turned-chefs. It wasn't just about the food—it was about coming together, sharing laughs, and strengthening the bonds that make our workplace a family. The BBQ wasn't just a treat for the taste buds; it was a symbol of teamwork and appreciation. It highlighted how collaboration among managers can bring joy and uplift spirits across the entire team.

"It was the least we could do. Our teams work very hard to please customers day in and day out. It was our pleasure." - Craig Flowers, Plant Manager.

From planning logistics to flipping burgers, the managers demonstrated that when they join forces, great things happen. Here's to more moments of togetherness and shared success at, not only our Syracuse branch, but hopefully others as well!

Self Care Month

Self-care is essential for maintaining overall well-being. Taking time for ourselves allows us to recharge, reduce stress, and improve our physical and mental health. When we prioritize self-care, we are better able to handle life's challenges and take on our responsibilities with a clearer and more positive mindset.

It's not selfish to prioritize self-care; it's necessary for leading a balanced and healthy life.
